

The Italian Cultural Institute of Louisville, Inc.
Istituto Culturale Italiano di Louisville

Notiziario for January 2010

Carnevale 2010

This year's annual celebration of our membership on the eve of Lent – will again be at the Boat Club on River Road . The date is February 16 at 7.00 p.m. and the evening will comprise the now-traditional music, feasting and wine. All members are welcome, guests of members will pay $10 which can be applicable to their membership if they join that night.

This is a save-the-date announcement and a flier with fuller details will be mailed.

Salotto di Clara

The Salotto di Clara will next meet from 7.00 to 9.00 on the third Thursday of January, the 21st at Clara's house. Call 491 2297 for more details.

Language Classes

The beginners' class is fully subscribed. The intermediate class meets on Thursday evenings at 5:45, and interested newcomers may call Judy Robbins at 423-8868.

Biblioteca Italiana will next meet in February. Details will shortly follow.

Winetasting in January

Plans are complete for a tasting of Italian wines at Westport Whiskey and Wine, the host Chris Zaborowski, on, Saturday, January 30. The presenter will be David Dubou of Vintner Select Distributors, and there will be a discussion and print information on the wines selected. Light snack food will be served and the cost per member will be $15 per head, inclusive of food and wine. The event is limited to members and space is also limited so best call Judy Robbins on 502 423 8868 or email jdrobbinz@aol.com to reserve. If the event is oversubscribed, a second tasting may be scheduled.

Film Festival

Again curated by Professor Augustus Matri and hosted at the Chao Auditorium of the University of Louisville Eckstrom Library, this will run on one Tuesday and three Wednesdays in April. Dates are Tuesday April 6, and Wednesdays 14th, 21st and 28th, Titles will follow shortly.

Galileo Weekend

Please mark your calendars now (in pencil) for a major weekend event in May to celebrate several aspects of the life of Galileo: as a scientist, as a humanist and in his relations with the church. Dates are tentatively set for weekend of May 14 to 16, 2010, but may be changed according to availability of top-flight speakers. Locations will include the Rausch Auditorium and the Frazier Historical Museum, highlights will be a virtual tour of the universe, guided stargazing, in-depth lectures and a panel discussion facilitated in part by Bellarmine University. Much fuller information and date confirmation will follow.

Technology

Join our Facebook Fan Page, The Italian Cultural Institute of Louisville, Inc., access us on Twitter at ICILouisville. For more information send questions to info@icilouisville.org.