

Notiziario for November 2007

The Italian Cultural Institute of Louisville, Inc.
Istituto Culturale Italiano di Louisville

A Moveable Italian Feast

This event generated unprecedented publicity and a substantial profit for the Istituto. In mid-November we shall publish a Report to the Membership acknowledging and thanking volunteers, vendors and patrons for a job superbly well done.

Italian Lessons

The Institute's Italian Language classes have resumed every Tuesday at Catherine Spalding University from 5:30 to 7:00 pm. in room 308. Judy Robbins teaches the course and we have started afresh with the very good college level textbook Prego, sixth edition. The classes are free to members and those interested should please call Clara Maddox at 491-2297 to register. If you need catch-up help we may be able to oblige.

Biblioteca Italiana

The next Biblioteca will meet at Tom Van's house on the last Monday of the month (November 26) to discuss Andrea Camilleri's detective novel, The Smell of Night. Reminders and directions will be sent in good time.

Salotto di Clara

The Salotto di Clara will next meet at Clara Maddox's house on Thursday November 15. Mark your calendar now; reminders will be sent in good time.

Wine tasting and lecture

Sunday November 25 at 4.30 p.m.

Gerald Tyrrell introduces us to the concept of appreciating fine wine: what to look for, how to taste. Mark the date and watch out for full details very soon.
