Notiziario for November 2010

This month's highlight

Italian Wine Tasting in anticipation of the Holiday Season

Sunday, November 21, from 3.00 – 5.00 p.m.

Westport Whiskey and Wine

1115 Herr Ln, Louisville, KY 40222

Bill Juckett, for many years head of the wine division at Brown-Forman and his wife Barbara Juckett, a former advertising executive dealing with Brolio and other major Italian importers – both acknowledged authorities on all aspects of the Italian wine industry will introduce you to some of the amazing riches of Italian viniculture with special emphasis on “Big Reds for the Holidays.”

Tickets are $15 and are restricted to members of ICI only, and on a first-come basis. Reservations are required by calling (502) 939-8830 and will be acknowledged. Prior events of this sort have been sell-outs, so members are urged to reserve and pay as soon as possible.

Salotto di Clara

The Salotto di Clara will next meet on Thursday, November 19 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 at Clara Maddox's house, 7601 Petty Jay Ct. Phone # 491-2297. Clara writes: “Looking forward “di parlare la dolce lingua italiana.”

Biblioteca Italiana will next meet on the last Monday of this month, November 29, at Tom Van's house from 7.00 p.m. until 9.00 to discuss. Anthony Everitt's Augustus: the life of Rome's First Emperor. Call 458-4642 to tell Tom Van you are coming (wine and cocktail food will be served).

Membership Renewal

As previously announced, all memberships to ICI are now renewable at year's end. In a week's time, we shall send you an email renewal form and a link to www.icilouisville.org to enable you to renew and pay on our secure Pay Pal. If necessary we shall follow up with snail mail but in either event urge you to pay before the Holiday rush to help us complete our goal by December 31. Many thanks in anticipation.
