Italian Lessons

The Institute's Italian Language classes will resume this coming Tuesday, September 4, 2007. The class will meet at Catherine Spaulding University from 5:30 to 7:00 pm. in room 308. Clara Maddox will teach the course and we will start afresh with the very good college level textbook Prego, sixth edition. In addition, readings of Italian legends and stories will enrich the sessions. The classes are free to members and those interested should please call Clara Maddox at 491-2297 to register.

Biblioteca Italiana

Dr. Tom Van writes: On July 30, the Biblioteca Italiana enjoyed a conversation prompted by the reading of Ignazio Silone's novel Bread and Wine. We usually start at 7 and end by 9, but this one went past 10, before someone looked at their watch.

We look forward to meeting again on Monday, September 24 at 7 p.m. to discuss Dante's sequence of love poems, La Vita Nuova. Any translation of the Vita will work but we recommend the Penguin Paperback version, translated by Barbara Reynolds. It is available locally. Please come to Tom Van's house on September 24.

Salotto di Clara

The Salotto di Clara will next meet at Clara Maddox's house on Thursday September 20. Mark your calendar now; reminders will be sent in good time.

Use the members' HOTLINE for all enquiries or to have a membership form sent to a friend 502- 891- 0384. Membership form is now available by e-mail from thomsonsmillie@yahoo.com.
